7 p.m.
Cool and Breezy

The gun slingers ruled the day as New Ulm edged Farmington 1-0 in the final game of the first round of the tournament. On-the-money throws from left field by Jackson Yacklet in the first inning and another clutch throw from center by Whyatt Peterson cut off runs for Farmington to back up Chase Meyer's outstanding pitching. Meyer did run into trouble in the seventh and survived a bases-loaded jam. New Ulm scored the only run of the game in the first without a hit.
